

College of Pharmaceutical
Sciences and Drug Manufacturing
A college accredited by "NAQAAE"

PMC 706

COURSE DESCRIPTION:-

The course is designed for professionals who have responsibility for the performance of Bioburden, Endotoxin & Sterility Testing, or data review, pharmacists performing sterile compounding. This course will provide the students with principles, methods, and procedures of different quality control tests used for evaluation of safety, potency, and palatability of pharmaceutical products of small and large molecules drugs (biologicals) including herbal drugs. The standard pharmacopeial methods and procedures as well as international guidelines as WHO, EMA, TGA are covered in this course.

