

College of Pharmaceutical
Sciences and Drug Manufacturing
A college accredited by "NAQAAE"

CPC 805

COURSE DESCRIPTION:-

This course introduces the student to the basic principles of clinical research, design of research studies, types of research studies, clinical trials, statistical presentation of research data and ethical guidelines in drug research. This course also provides the students with an understanding of pharmacovigilance importance, concept, processes, systems, global safety standards and regulations and reporting systems.

