

College of Pharmaceutical
Sciences and Drug Manufacturing
A college accredited by "NAQAAE"

PLC 401

COURSE DESCRIPTION: -

The general principles of pharmacology are presented, such as pharmacokinetics, pharmacodynamics, receptor theory, drug interaction, and principle of therapeutics. This course integrates principles of pharmacology with conceptual knowledge of physiology and pathophysiology to disease processes regarding the autonomic, neuromuscular, and autacoids.

